PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCES

Head of Digital Acceleration at Takeda since 2019.

Leading strategic initiatives and projects to deploy our Digital Transformation strategy in globally acting and cross-functional teams. Acting as translator by identifying requirements, shaping solutions, driving change, and by speaking the language of technology as well as of business, thereby building the bridge between technology and organization for successful implementation.

CMC Program Manager at Takeda (2016 – 2019).

Leading globally acting product teams at any stage of the drug development lifecycle process (preclinical to commercial) and various disease areas (hematology, oncology, gene therapy).

Project Manager at Octapharma (2014 – 2016).

Leading strategic projects and assignments for the plant manager around site development, business excellence and production related optimization projects.

Postdoctoral Research Fellow at Norwegian University of Life Sciences (2014 – 2014) & PhD Researcher at Graz University of Technology (2010 – 2013).

Research focus on enzyme technology, protein engineering and carbohydrate chemistry. See Google Scholar for a full list of publications.
